ABSTRACT OF THE HOSPITAL REPORT. The Hospital work has been contin edwithout interruption the past year and, while presenting interesting features and the 28th January, 1904, at 2.30 p.m., at showing progress, much of the work has No. 14 Queen's Road Central (1st & 2nd been routine in character. The attendance at the Hospital has been large and a greater number of major operations performed than

The initiation of a new water supply and the erection of the College building brought added duty and responsibility to the physicians who find their time more than filled with the increasing demands of the work as a whole. A hospital store room has been established within the past year in which all supplies are involced. Everything from this room is given out by an order signed by one of On View from Wednesday, the 27th system has resulted in a considerable eaving in current expenditure and made more convenient the storage of clothing, badding, and general supplies. During the year the Medical College building has been completed and is now one of the landmarks of Canton. The 144 dimensions are 83 feet in length by 49 feet in width and 75 feet to the top of Observatory. Red brick and the best material throughout have been used and the building is well suited to the purposes of the College. The College Prospectus recently issued gives details of this department of the Society's work. We improve this opportunity of expressing our bearty thanks to those who have sided in establishing the College. While much yet remains to be accomplished, it

On motion, this report was accepted and the Committee continued. The Committee were congratulated on the work they had recomplished and the fine appearance of the College building in which the Society now met.

On motion of Rev. H. V. Noyes, D.D., the following resolutions in regard to the death of Hon. Charles . Seymour were adopted. Resolved :--(1) That we have learned with deep regret, since our last meeting and at the advanced age of more than eighty years, of the Hon. Charles Seymour, formerly United States Consul at Canton, and for many years a Vice-President of the Medical Missionary Society.

(2) That we desire to place on record our recognition of the valuable services which he rendered to this Society, by the personal interest he took in its welfare, by his efforts to awaken a like interest on the part of others, by securing, year by year, liberal donations for its support, and by frequently prosiding at its meetings.

That we express our high appreciation of his character as a man-one of nature's noblemen-dispensing a generous hospitality in his own home; so genial that his presence was always welcome at social gatherings; such an able speaker that he was ever in demand on public occasions; of such sterling integrity in official life and such honesty of purpose that his country-men all felt that their interests were safe in his hands; of such high moral principle that he won the esteem of all, not only of the foreign community but of the Chinese, and his example continually an influence for good. Though he has been absent for years we cherish his memory still.

(4) That a copy of these resolutions be ! sent to his family. The Board of Officers for the ensuing years was constituted as following :---President-Rev. R. H. Graves, M.D.,

The recurrence of the dry season and the in WATER SUPPLY stitution of the intermittent system calls attention to the water supply, and on all sides we hear queries as to what the Government is doing to obvinte these periodic water famines. An adequate water supply is the first essential of modern city. Hitherto, Hongkong ha not enjoyed the blessings of an adequate supply of water in the dry season, and, to some extent, former officials are consideration must be given to the fact that the growth of Hongkong has been abnormal during the past ten years, and it is not at all improbable that had larger expenditure been proposed for improving the water supply after the opening of the Tytam Reservoir, there would have been strong opposition from those who did not foresee the rapid growth of the Colony. " An effort is now being made to remedy past neglect. Not Royal salute was fired at noon. only are works now in progress on the Island of Hongkong and on the mainland for impounding more water during the wet season, but steps 3 p.m.-Auction of Booths and Matsheds are now to be, taken to conserve the present supply. The Imperial authorities having decided against the proposal for the removal of taps from Chinese tenement houses and in favour The Fiscal Question. of the rider-main system, the Colonial Government has ordered the necessary material from England, and has asked for an additional Executive Engineer and foremen to supervise the work. It is not anticipated, however, that this work will be so far advanced by the Mountain Peak Disappears. next dry season as to mitigate the scarcity of water due to waste in Chinese houses. At the last meeting of the Legislative Council, correspondence was laid on the table dealing with the extension works at Tytam, not necessary to recapitulate the information given in those documents, as last year we gave a detailed progress and in contemplation.

most important change in Chatham's scheme is the proposal to build a new dam in the Tytam Valley. below the present reservoir, as. repummended in May, 1896, by Municipal. Cooper, then Director of Public Works. The impounding capacity of this dum. which Mr. Chatham proposes to built 20 feet higher than Mr. Cooper projected, will be 194 million gallons. This will add 48 days' supply to that already available, bringing the total up" to 233 days' supply of four million gallons. The present supply from the various reservoirs, catchvaters, &c., on the island is 741,300,000gallons. The cost of the new scheme Colonial Office, and work will be commenced as speedily as possible, and it is hoped the additional supply will be in readiness for the dry season of 1905-6. The King and the Trar.

LONDON, January 18. King Edward has had considerable personal correspondence with his friend, Tzar Nicholas, of Russia, over the supposedly impending hostilities. The King of Great Brit in has asked the Tzar to maintain peace; pointing out to him the disasters that in ght come on most of Europe and Asia by a war with Japan. The King urges the Trar to yield to-Japan as much as possible, and to save the world from a war which once started might involve most of the Powers. When it is remembered that the King of England is an ally of the Mikado, it would seem as if he were giving fair warning to the Tzar that if he forces Japan to fight, he may expect England to support her ally.

Cargo Boat Boarded in the Harbour.

A determined and evidently well-laid plan of armed robbery was frustrated i by Police Constable Attley in the Harbour on Wednesday night.

A cargo boat was lying in Yaumati Bay. on board of which were the master, his approached the boat stealthily and claim. at the time of the collision. bered on board. They succeeded in reaching the side of the woman without being observed, and two of the men proceeded to gag the woman. She woke- up immediately they laid their hands on her and called out 'Save life; Thieves.' She struggled with her assailants, and the noise of the struggle and her cries aroused her son and grandson, who were in the hold. Both ran up on deck, and went to her assistance. The father and son threw pieces of wood and coal at the marauders, and two of the latter rushed at represented the defendant. them with knives. The son received a gash from one of the knives on the first finger on the left hand, which laid his finger open for its entire length, to the bone, While the fight was in progress Police Constable Attley heard the row and pulled over to the cargo boat in a rowing boat. When the attackers saw the police boat coming they jumped over the side and attempted to swim ashere. The constable managed to catch two of them, but the others escapod in the darkness.

Rowing back to the junk with his prisoners Constable Attley found that the woman, who is 84 years of age, was in a weak state; consequent upon the severe handling she re-Chan In's queue was chopped off and Chau Chin's hand was covered in blood, which flowed from the wound on his finger. FIRE AT SEYMOUR ROAD.

A House Gutted.

A fire broke out in No. 13, Seymour Road, in a European house, occupied by a Chinaman, early this morning. The fire was first noticed about 1.30 a.m. to-day by an Indian | had been very diligent in watching the Constable on duty, who promptly blew his launches, and had not allowed the number whistle. Word was sent to the Fire Station and the men called out. It was close on two o'clock when the Brigade arrived at the scene of the fire, and oven then the water difficulty cropped up. The mains were empty, and it was a considerable time before they were filled with a sufficient pressure to play on the burning building. The fire broke out in the basement, and the house was soon a roaring furnace. The roof and floors collapsed early, giving the fire an additional impetus. The occupants of the adjoining house were roused by Inspector Robertson and they transferred most of their movable goods on to the pavement outside. The amah was observed running out the back entrance with her box. and when nuestioned as to the whereabouts of her charge, the baby, said quietly, 'Ut topside.' Needless to say the baby was soon removed to a place of safety.

By this time three streams of water were being played on the fire, and all the house, for the flames had too good a hold when the water was available.

The fire was subdued about 4 o'clock. but the firemen remained until nearly five. to check any further outbreak. The adjoining houses were greatly in danger owing to the falling sparks, but fortunately they escaped. No. 11 suffered considerably by water, and the kitchen roof caught alight, but was quickly extinguished.

The occupants of No. 13 were absent. it is presumed in Canton, when the fire | Central Police Station. occurred, but the servants were still in the The whole of No. 18 was completely gutted before the fire was conquered, but the extent of the damage has not been fully estimated. The house is the property of Mr E. D. Sassoon, and, as far as could secertained, was not insured.

This is the most serious fire that has taken place in a European house for many years in Hongkong, but even in this case, Chimbes were the occupants. No fire at this level has been known to take place for vore many years past.

BRITAIN'S QUARREL WITH THIBET.

If Great Britain and Thibet are destined to engage in one of those little wars for which the Empire is famous, the former for the registration and control of the pative country will enter into the quarrel with some sense of righteous indignation. , Bri tain has nothing to be ashamed of in the matter of aggressions upon the Thibetans. That she is anxious to thrust her trade on them may be admitted. In resorting to arms to accomplish this, she is only enforcing the terms of a treaty which the Dalai Lama has flagrantly violated. Britain has, arrived. asked for no more than her diplomacy has fairly won. If, when the smoke clears away, the Thibetans find themcolves shorn of a large slice territory, if their Lamas are no longer permitted to intrigue with St. Petershurg and Poking, their punishment will about fit their crime, This and more they are convinced that Mr Chamberlain's pro- deserved in 1886, when they invaded British territory. They escaped for the time being, because the Indian Government was not in a position to deal severely with them. Since then, say atudents of Indo-Chinese affairs, they have treated the British Government with open disrespect. Lonioncy was inistaken for weakness. The disinclination to make summary reprisals was interpreted as an admission of fear. The intience of the British Government long as a Summer day, they have been familiar with, but the vengeance, long as a Winter night, they know nothing of, And now it seems that they are about to l be taught by Younghusband, of the Guides. The chapter of British history which deals with the causes of the present trouble began in 1884, when Mr Colman Macaulay. secretary to the Government of Bengal. more than a hundred years before by War- | reserve fund. ren Hastings' representative, George Bogle. Macaulay passed through the British Protectorate of Sikhim, a tiny State on the southern border of Thibet, met the Go-

The next year be endeavored to follow up his opening by a visit to Lhasea, and secured a pass to the sacred city from the authorities in Peking. Secret instructions to prevent him from reaching his destination had been previously sent out, so the pass was worthless After ar armed force had barred Macaulay's path, the British Government asked Peking for an explanation. It was on hard. The unfortunate episode was blamed on the ignorant Thibetans. The Chinese were grieved, but they suggested that the British expedition withdraw for the time being, and promised that some time in the near future the path from Bengal to Lhassa should be smooth and open. Weakly enough the authorities consented, and with the retreat British prestige in both Thibet and Sikhim -an interested spectator—sank to zero. The latter had always been a treacherous
